COURSEWORK REASSESSMENT REQUIREMENT

Module Code: 5205

Module Title: Evaluating Outdoor Leadership

Tutor: Neal Anderson

Title of the item of work: Outdoor Leadership Practice Report

Wordage: 1500 words

Intended Learning Outcome Assessed:

IOL1: Coherently articulate progression in the understanding of critical approaches to the interpretation of theory and practice knowledge in outdoor contexts

ILO3: Methodically evaluate of a range of examples of outdoor leadership in practice

Task:

To produce a report that critically appraises either your own or another person's outdoor leadership practice.

Expected Content:

- Clear intention and structure for the report
- Evidence of progression in understanding
- Critical and methodical interpretation of data
- Well-defined links between theory and the outdoor context
- A range of examples of outdoor leadership
- References – quality, range, Harvard referencing

Details and Criteria:

The emphasis on this work should be 'applied' – that is, how leadership theory supports and relates to practice. You can draw from:

- your own leadership experiences
- observations and structured interview with a peer
- a case study approach using contemporary or historical accounts

During this report it is important to consider reflective practice (where you reflect on what you have learnt and what it means to you) and reflexive practice (where you consider implications from what you have learnt on the wider context you work within).

Use sources and citations to demonstrate your background reading, knowledge and understanding.
