

FEES FOR CONTINUING STUDENTS IN 2026/2027 ACADEMIC YEAR

This page confirms the increase in tuition fees which will be payable by continuing students in the 2026/27 academic year (1 August 2026 to 31 July 2027).

The University's Student Financial Regulations explain that tuition fees for continuing students will increase by inflation, measured by the RPI-X forecast, annually. The Government has confirmed that this increase, from 1 August 2026, will be 2.71%. The table below confirms the fee to be charged to continuing students in 2026/27.

Please note the fees below are headline fees and are stated before any discounts, scholarship or other funding that may be applicable.

The fees stated below are for full time programmes; part time students will be charged a pro rata amount.

Students who began an integrated foundation programme in 2025/26 will be charged the relevant Undergraduate fee for 2026/27 as stated below for their second year of study in 2026/27.

If you have any queries or cannot find your 2025/26 fee below and would like clarification on your 2026/27 fee please email continuingfees@cumbria.ac.uk.
