

Options with a degree in Dance

What skills will you develop?

Dance graduates are able to:

- work with versatility and an open mind
- perform under pressure, improvise and think quickly
- work collaboratively with others
- be self-aware and act with self-discipline and a high level of self-motivation
- manage time and workloads effectively to set deadlines
- show resilience and stamina
- learn from mistakes and strive for improved performance

These are just a sample of jobs where a Dance degree would be a useful background or relevant first step prior to further training or study

What help is available from the University of Cumbria?

The Careers and Employability Service can support you with your career planning throughout your time at university, and for up to three years after you graduate. During this time, you can access our career hub, My Career Enriched, which enables you to:

- search for graduate jobs, part-time work, work experience, placements and paid internships
- book one-to-one advice and guidance appointments
- book a practice interview
- book onto employability events
- access the CV/application review service

We also offer practical workshops on a range of employability topics, as well as advice and information about further study.

Students with a disability or health condition can request information and advice on finding disability confident employers, how to declare a disability, applying for work, and requesting adjustments in the recruitment process.
